SARGENT REPLIES TO REV. E. W. THWING

Immigration Commissioner F. P. Sargent in the last mail replied to the Rev. E. W. Thwing's letter in connection with the case of Edgar Lo Sun.

Sargent says: "I can not believe that the time has yet arrived when there will be any particular change in the policy of the government so far as exclusion is concerned. My views on this question have been fully set forth in the annual report of the Bureau, and with the experience I have had I think I am not far from a proper solution of the present difficulties. But it requires time to bring about a full understanding, which would be necessary to modify present conditions."

BONINE STILL TAKING PICTURES.

R. K. Bonine has been keeping his moving-picture-taking machine busy for the past few weeks catching many bits of local character pictures, some of them old Hawaiian customs fast passing away. It is his intention very shortly to put on a series of Saturday afternoon shows, having sent to New York for a number of the latest and best scenes and pictures of an educational value.

Captain Goodwin of the ship Dirigo entertained at luncheon aboard his vessel yesterday afternoon, his guests being Dr. and Mrs. Mackall, Paymaster and Mrs. Brooke, Dr. and Mrs. Wadhams, Judge Kingsbury and Walter G. Smith.
